

Manual for Electricity-driven Confetti Machine

USER MANUAL

Please read over this manual before operation the machine

1. Main component of the Electricity-driven Confetti machine

Host machine, power supply and confetti

2. Preparations before operation: Before use, fix the funnel Onto The machine and Position it to the direction with the Wind Connect the machine to the power Source. Turn on The power switch on the control panel to examine whether The machine is linked to the power source Turn o ff the Switch After the examination
3. Operation on instruction: 3-1Manual control: Turn on the Power Switch on the control panel. When the red {POWER} Light is on, the Machine will start to operate and make a certain sound When you herd the sound, open the cover on the machine and put confetti it. Driven by The wind of the fans, the confetti a marvelous spectacle. to stop the machine from operating, turn off the power switch on the control panel and unplug the machine from the power source
- 3-2Remote Control: Turn the power switch on the control panel to "remote control" and push the buttons on the remote controller to send out signals to control to control the machine.

Caution: Keep a certain distance away from the machine while it is operating. DO NOT touch any part inside the machine. DO NOT look into the funnel. Make sure the machine doesn't do any harm to personnel. When anything abnormal occurs during the operation, please turn off the machine first for close examination. Or open the backside of the machine to find out if there's any obstruction. Clear the machine frequently, in case the machine gets stuck inside. our company shall take no responsibility for any consequences caused by negligence voltage:110v-220v 50-60hz power: 600W weight:24kg

Control: remote control/power supply size: 74*63*39cm